Naples, January 10, N. S.

ON the 5th and 7th Inſtant arrived here a Train of Field-pieces, and twenty Waggons with Ammunition and Military Stores, which were left at Capua by the Spaniards when they took that Place, and are now put into our Arſenal. The Preparations for War are continued here with the utmoſt Diligence, and all the Ship-Carpenters and Smiths are conſtantly employed in making new Carriages for the Service of the Artillery.

Rome, Jan. 14 On the 8th a German Officer arrived here with Diſpatches from the Governour of Milan to M. Tun, the Imperial Miniſter, who had immediately an Audience of the Pope, to demand the Paſſage of a Detachment of 6000 Germans from the Milaneſe to Tuſcany through the Eccleſiaſtical State; and though 'tis ſaid the Pope neither granted nor denied the Requeſt, we have an Account, that the Inhabitants of the Bologneſe are preparing the neceſſary Quarters for thoſe Troops.

Leghorne, Jan. 20. On the 17th three Troops of the Regiment of Perling Cuiraſſiers, and two Companies of Grenadiers, ſet out from Piſa in their March to Siena. On the 19th they were followed by a Battallion of Hilburgauſen's Regiment of Foot from Piſa; and on the 20th a Battallion of Pallavicini's Regiment marched from hence to join the other Auſtrian Troops at Siena.

Florence, Jan. 22. On the 18th M. de Wachtendonck arrived here from Leghorne, atttended by M. Salvioni from Maſſa, (an Agent employed by the Germans in the late War to provide the Magazines): He had immediately a Conference with the Prince Craon and M. Richecourt, and has held ſeveral Councils of War, in order to ſettle the neceſſary Supplies for the Subſiſtance of the 6000 Germans that are coming from Lombardy to Tuſcany.

Vienna, Jan. 25, N. S. The youngeſt Archdutcheſs was taken ill about Two of the Clock this Morning, and died at Noon, much in the ſame Manner and with the ſame Symptoms as the Queen's eldeſt Daughter died in June laſt. This Affliction comes very hard upon the Queen, who is near her Time of Lying-in.

Berlin, Feb. 7. His Pruſſian Majeſty is expected here this Evening from Rupin. M. Demeradt, the Queen of Hungary's Reſident, left this Place on Thurſday laſt.

Navy Office, Jan. 31, 1740.

Theſe are to give Notice, That the Two Months Wages in Six, due to his Majeſty's Ships under-mentioned, to the Times againſt them expreſs'd, will be paid at the Pay Office in Broad-ſtreet on Thurſday the 12th of February next, to the Seamens lawful Attornies, in purſuance of an Act of Parliament on that Behalf, viz.

Experiment, October 16, 1740.
